THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION
Takes place on Tuesday, the 2nd day of November. The polls open at 6 o'clock
A. M., and close at 7 o'clock P. M.

Upon what are their hopes founded?

The Journal announces that a gain is going to be made in five counties in Pennsylvania.—The Philadelphia Argus expounds the business:

PLAIN QUESTIONS FOR WHIGS.—It is now a well known fact that a secret meeting was recently held in this city by Truman Smith, Fitz Henry Warren, Moses Grinnell, Simeon Draper, Thaddeus Stevens and ex-Governor Johnston, for the purpose of devising some means to repair the failing fortunes of the Whigs in the State of Pennsylvania, in Ohio and New York.

The whigs were there discussed, and the plan agreed upon was to raise sufficient funds to send agents into all quarters of these States to operate upon the free soil and abolition vote, by representing to the leaders of these factions that Gen. Scott, if elected, will use all the power of the general government at their disposal, the abolition of the fugitive slave law; second, the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia; and thirdly, the prohibition of slavery in the territories belonging to the United States government. These are the points to be presented by the agent of this wing committee, and the funds for this purpose are to come from the whig merchant of New York, and others in the North and East. Also, we are informed that a circular has been secretly issued from the committee, setting forth the absolute necessity there is for this fund, and calling upon the faithful to be liberal with the election will go by default. How this draft on the purses of the whig merchants of this city will be met, remains to be seen, and in the mean time we can only say that these plain questions with reference to this abolition move on the part of the committee from Washington, who are leading in this attack on one portion of the Union and all its guaranteed rights.

The editor don't speak of a doubtful matter, but one well known. He then proceeds, through a column of earnest remonstrance against siding to get up the abolition excitement in that State.

The announcement in the Journal is the fruit of this consultation, and of the fixed design upon. The Chickasaw ambassador is now on a mission from Kentucky to the free soil portion of Ohio, begging the abolitionists to vote for Scott, and prevent the extension of slavery. A Kentucky whig aiding and abetting the efforts of these abolition agitators in getting up a storm of fanaticism again: Those in this State who agree with C. M. Clay, might employ themselves in this business consistently, but here is a whig hard at it; whilst whig editors and whig orators here are pledging themselves that Scott is perfectly safe and reliable upon the slavery question. The men who would vote for Scott under such circumstances, would vote for Seward himself, or Thaddeus Stevens, or any one of the higher law whigs. It is not worth while to reason with such men. In 1845, whig went from Kentucky to the free States on similar missions. That is a notorious fact.

If The Journal follows the example of the Courier, and publishes an extract from the Concord Tribune, charging Pierce with habitual intemperance. The same production is published in the whig papers at Pittsburgh and published to the New Hampshire Patriot. It is therefore probable that the production is a forgery.

Immediately upon the nomination of Pierce, a letter appeared in the New York Tribune making this charge of drunkenness. The editor next repudiated it, and said he had not read it before its publication; it would not have appeared. Greeley was evidently ashamed of it; and denies indignantly any desire to use such a slender.

At this late day, the falsehood is published in Kentucky.

A friend of the Rev. Mr. Wool, of Concord, wrote to him on this subject. He says he has been twelve years intimate with Franklin Pierce, living in the same neighborhood, and adds:

"You refer to 'rumors respecting the use of intoxicating beverages.' I will first say in reply, that in my long and somewhat intimate acquaintance with Gen. Pierce, I have never heard him to use such spirits; nor have I ever seen him drunk. I thought he had not used it. In the next place I will say, that knowing Dr. Thomas Chaudhury, one of our most distinguished physicians, a total abstinence man, and a member of the church at which Gen. Pierce worships, has been for years the family physician of Gen. Pierce, I took the liberty to him let her enclosed in a note, to ascertain whether she was the author of the report. She has answered me thus:

"My little fellow, what do you go to sleep for?" "I can't keep awake," rejoined the other, "it is such a terrible bore to see them doing the same things every night."

"But why do you come?"

"Oh, I can't help it—I must come—I've got a season ticket!"

WINNERS.—The editor of the Cleveland Forest City, one of the best refined Whig prints in the country, which he has honored with the result of the elections in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania, throws out the following nice bit of advice to his Whig friends:

"Our advice to Whigs, then, is, to make no more but withdraw those they have made, however strong the chances."

Now, don't care in! It looks melancholy just on the eve of the last throw!—Cin. Eng.

COMPENSORY ENJOYMENT.—A gentleman who frequented the circus, noticed a boy among the audience who was sound asleep every time he happened in.

Curious to know why the urchin should resort to such a place for omniforous purposes, our friend went up one evening and accosted him.

"My little fellow, what do you go to sleep for?"

"I can't keep awake," rejoined the other, "it is such a terrible bore to see them doing the same things every night."

"But why do you come?"

"Oh, I can't help it—I must come—I've got a season ticket!"

MURKIN MILL.—The following is a description given, some time since, of a mill established on a queer mechanical principle, in one of the villages down East:

A gentleman traveling in that section of the country, overtook a farmer dragging a lean wretched looking horse sheep along the road, with a load of stones. The animal was in the best city reference given. Address Private Box 21, Louisville Postoffice. 10/30

FIFTH VOLUME COMPLETED!
HARPER'S
NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

THE November Number closes the Fifth Volume of HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE, which has been edited by the author of "Great Expectations." With its thirty-six parts, it contains more than 100,000 copies, and is still steady and rapidly increasing.

It is at once conclusive evidence of the character of the publication, and the immense extent of our public. Great Britain, with its twenty-six million, France, with its thirty million, and all Germany, with its twenty-five millions, have never seen anything like it, and furnished the phenomenon of a Monthly Magazine reaching as large a circulation as this work.

The author's name is given, and the identity of Whig and fanatic to be clearly developed.

Fort Wayne Sentinel.

THE editor of the Cleveland Forest City, one of the best refined Whig prints in the country, which he has honored with the result of the elections in Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania, throws out the following nice bit of advice to his Whig friends:

"Our advice to Whigs, then, is, to make no more but withdraw those they have made, however strong the chances."

Now, don't care in! It looks melancholy just on the eve of the last throw!—Cin. Eng.

THE WHIGS insist that Scott is much more popular in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, than the whig candidate, so badly beaten a week or two since. The whigs have found out that they are unpopular generally; but hope better for Fuss and Feathers. He is popular, for his triumphs are of the physical sort; and besides, he is shallow, and the mass of people like shallow men best. Well, we grant that shallowness secures popularity, Scott ought to be the most popular man in the United States. Let us see if the people will confirm whig politicians in this degrading opinion of them.

Recollect that Professor Cross will give the reasons to-night, at the Court house, why he, and many other southern whigs cannot support Gen. Scott for the presidency. Let all those of the Doctor's party who are not determined to vote for Winfield Scott, right or wrong, come out and hear this learned and eloquent gentleman.

Endeavor rather to get the approbation of a few good men, than the huzzas of the mob vulgar.

The editor of the Journal has learned that there are 8,000 voters for Scott in five counties in Pennsylvania which have not yet made their appearance at the polls, and will be out on Tuesday next; consequently that Scott is safe for Scott. Well, that's nothing new; we were told by Scott's organs that Scott was making prodigious headway in Pennsylvania before the late elections, and that the locofocos were duly frightened at the prospect. There has been a prodigious uprising for Scott all the time. Not only were the whigs going to vote for him, but democrats, out of sheer admiration of his greatness, were to vote for him instead of Pierce and King. It is quite a coming down now, to claim only about thousand in five counties. It ought to be at least some 20 or 30,000. It is just as easy to write down one as another; and our neighbor ought to have urged the whigs with an imposing array of figures. After the election, we shall be entertained with what the whigs could have done had they tried, if it hadn't rained, or some other locofoco fraud had not been perpetrated.

The Democratic barbecue at Shelbyville. Thursday was a glorious day for the democracy in old Shelby. The masses assembled about 10 o'clock to the number of two thousand or twenty-five hundred, and were sumptuously feasted till five in the evening, with elaborate entertainments of democratic truth, from Messrs. Nuttall and Green; with sweet strains of martial music, from the famous Saxhorn Band; and with a bountiful supply of well-barbecued meats and other needful alimenta and delicacies.

At night an immense mass of ladies and gentlemen crowded the large court room to overflowing, when they were more eloquently and humorously entertained to a very late hour, by J. O. Bullock, Esq., the gallant and promising young democrat of Jefferson, and W. P. Jarvis, Esq., the talented young democratic lawyer, of Shelbyville, who is contributing by his energy and power, a most invaluable service towards the great work of revolutionizing the complexion of that old sink of political iniquity.

The speech of Dr. Green is spoken of, for force of truth and sound argument, as one of the very best of the cause. Mr. Bullock was also very happy and impressive in defending the great truth of democracy, and exposing the errors of his party. Their efforts will tell well upon the approaching contest in that quarter of the district.

For the Louisville Democrat.

Louisville, Oct. 29th, 1852.

Mrs. Harney & Hughes:

GENTS—I see in the Louisville Journal of this morning that the editor (Mr. Prentiss) gives it as his opinion that Gen. Scott will be elected President of the United States on Tuesday next. Now, I propose to test the opinion of the editor of the Journal, by proposing to him or any Senator in out of the city of Louisville, ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS that Gen. Pierce will be elected President of the United States over Gen. Scott.

MONEY.

Which are to be Believed? GENERAL PIERCE is a COWARD. HE FAINTED AT CHURUBUSCO.—All the Whig papers.

"A MORE GALLANT MAN, OR A MORE HONORABLE MAN, THAN GEN. PIERCE, BOTH IN PUBLIC AND PRIVATE LIFE, I NEVER KNEW.—Gen. Winfield Scott to Col. Gorman.

ALREADY.—The Journal man, at Indianapolis, has already commenced showing his true feelings towards our foreign population, in favor of the recall of General Scott, and the withdrawal of Whigs in the cause. They are a whig hard at it; whilst whig editors and whig orators here are pledging themselves that Scott is perfectly safe and reliable upon the slavery question. # THE DEMOCRAT.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1852.

A Word to Advertisers.—All the advertisements appearing in the Daily Democrat are transferred to our Evening Edition, and receive a gratuitous insertion in it. Thus each patron of the morning paper has the advantage of an evening circulation to a distinct class of readers free of charge.

RALLY! RALLY!

Dr. GREEN, elector of this district, will speak at Leavenworth, Jefferson county, on Friday, and at Benson on Saturday.

RALLY, DEMOCRATS.

Capt. E. A. Graves, L. A. Whitley, Alfred Dobbins (the mechanic) and Philip Tempert will address the people of Louisville at Waltron's Goffee-house, corner of Clay and Jefferson streets, on THIS EVENING, (30th inst.) at early gas lighting. Come one, come all; let there be a grand rally for Pierce, King, Saunders and democracy.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

Professor Cross will address his fellow-citizens at the Court House on SATURDAY EVENING, 30th inst. It is hoped that many of our whig fellow-citizens will be present on this occasion, as the Professor will doubtless deliver an address that will richly repay them for their attendance.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

E. F. NUTALL, Esq., of New Castle, will address the democrats of Louisville, at the SHELBY STREET MARKET HOUSE, on MONDAY NIGHT, at 7 o'clock.

For some time past our paper has been almost exclusively devoted to the canvas; but now, that the election will soon be over, we expect to show that our "industry, watchfulness and enterprise" will not permit us to leave unpublishe any items of news of public interest; nor will the "Democrat" lack in variety in all that goes to make an agreeable and entertaining newspaper.

We have on hand several contributions which shall soon appear—soon, indeed, as the smoke of the canvas clears away, and the public mind settles down to its accustomed channels.

Well's Minstrels.

This incomparable troupe of Ethiopian Minstrels give their last entertainment in our city, to-night. We urge those who have not had the pleasure of hearing them, to be present to-night, as their engagements in other places will prevent their remaining longer in our city. The programme for this evening is an excellent one, embracing a variety of songs, dances, burlesques, extravaganzas, &c. Those who are troubled with the "blue devile" would do well to attend. Birch is an infallible remedy.

Workers in the field.—Laborers are in great demand all over the country. Five hundred are wanted immediately to work on the Shelbyville Railroad. An agent of the New Orleans and Jackson Railroad has been in Cincinnati for several days, endeavoring to hire four or five hundred laborers to work on the above named road during the winter. Good wages are offered, but he has not succeeded in inducing laborers to go South. The industrial classes may indeed congratulate themselves on these comparatively favorable days of labor.

A telegraph despatch says there were 800 people at the democratic barbecue at Shelbyville; half of them whigs. Similar authority reported that there were six thousand at the whig barbecue at Oakland! The former can't be quite as big a lie as the latter.

Law Books at Auction.—Mr. Dan Heaton will sell at Auction this evening, a large number of law books. It will doubtless afford an opportunity of procuring bargains in this description of books. Lawyers and others will please attend.

Residence of Mr. C. Green.—The residence of Mr. C. Green, on Third street, between Market and Jefferson, was burglariously entered on Thursday night, and robbed of a valuable silver pitcher. Mr. Green offers the weight of the pitcher in silver for its recovery.

Speaking at the Court-House.

Remember DR. CROSS makes a speech at the Courthouse to-night.

Also—

DR. SHERROD AND WM. H. ENGLISH, Esq., of Indiana. All eloquent and able speakers.

Tune out, democrats, in your strength.

Hiram Atterman, a cabin boy on board the Bowline Green packet Olive, while in the act of drawing a bucket of water, fell overboard and was drowned. The accident occurred at the head of Long Island in Barren river on last Sunday.

Riley, the Irish patriot, has published a letter in the New York Herald addressed to Gen. Pierce, in behalf of the Irish patriots now in exile, from which we shall furnish extracts in our next issue. Every Irishman should see it.

The receipts of the Indiana State Fair, recently held at Indianapolis, amounted to a sufficient sum to pay all expenses, and to refund to the State the two thousand dollars appropriated to the board last winter.

The Sinclair Family, a group of four children, said to possess extraordinary vocal powers, will give one or two concerts in our city next week.

A gentleman of our acquaintance went to Indianapolis on Thursday—took a look around the city, and returned home the same evening—afeat not often performed.

Those who have collected funds to pay for the Democratic Barbecue, are requested to meet the Committee of Arrangements at C. C. Green's this evening, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Gustavus Chamagne, the accompanist-clerk of the steamer Friendship, will please accept our thanks for files of New Orleans and St. Louis papers.

The steamer Forrest City arrived last night from St. Louis. She reports three and a half feet water on the bars below.

A buggy was upset on Strader's Wharf yesterday morning. The driver escaped with a muddy coat.

The weather yesterday was rainy and disagreeable, and the streets very sloppy.

Jno. M. Stokes' Furniture Warerooms. One of the first establishments of its kind in the West is the Cabinet and Furniture manufacturer and sales-rooms of Mr. J. M. Stokes, on Main street, opposite the Bank of Kentucky.—Every description of furniture, but especially of the finer and more costly kinds, may be found here in abundance. All the most recent patterns, bearing the most exquisite finish, together with all of the old established styles of furniture are embraced in the stock of this house. Mr. S. has furnished more parts probably than any similar house in the West—in fact his reputation for the finer descriptions of furniture is so widely known, that he receives many orders from distant points, for parts sets complete.

Conviction of a Father and Son.—Joshua and William Gilmer, father and son, have been found guilty at Harrisburg, Va., of robbing the meat-house of Abraham Byrd. The punishment of Joshua was fixed at three years confinement in the penitentiary, and that of William to three years and six months.

Handbills have been recently posted about the city of Boston, cautioning the people against the habit of swearing, and threatening prosecution in all cases of violation of the law. If parties were to be presented in this city for swearing what a busy time there would be.

Great Distress at Madeira.—The failure of the vintage, resulting from the recent blight upon the grape, has produced the greatest distress among the inhabitants of Madeira, and threatens with absolute starvation large masses of the laboring classes. The civil Governor of the island has issued a circular acknowledging the impotence of the Portuguese government to meet the emergency with anything like adequate relief, and appealing to the Christian sympathies of foreign nations for aid to avert the impending calamity.

A Large Lump of California Gold.—A solid lump of gold, in its rough state, weighing twenty-six and a half pounds, avoirdupois weight, has been deposited at the importing house of Messrs. Richard & Co., in New York, by a Texan miner, who dug the same from a mine seventy feet deep, in California.

Verdict Against Railroads.—James Hegeman has received $9,900 damages from the Western (N. Y.) Railroad, for an injury (by which he was made a cripple for life) sustained by him two years ago. A man named Douglas has also recovered $1,813 from the Buffalo and Rochester road, for upsetting his wagon.

The Erie Railroad Company have recently forbid entirely the sale of intoxicating drinks in any of the refreshment houses along the road, or in any of the grounds of the company, and absolutely refuse employment to any persons who make use of such drinks.

The Boston Shipping List says the number of persons, male and female, now employed in Massachusetts, in the manufacture of boots and shoes is 75,000, and the value of the goods $25,000 annually.

An Exchange paper in noticing the next little speech delivered by Gen. Pierce at Concord, the other day, says from this it is evident General Pierce is but seldom "caught with his breeches down."

The city council of Savannah, Ga., have subscribed $60,000 to the Savannah and Albany railroad, which is to be surveyed and located immediately.

It has just been discovered that a little girl, fourteen, near Galena, Illinois, murdered her parents, who died last spring, as was then supposed, by cholera.

The city debt of Richmond, Va., amounts to $1,200,000.

An exhausted Receiver.—A busted up pawn-broker.

An Atrrocious Murder.—We are furnished by Mr. Pignan, of the Gen. Pike, with the particulars attending the perpetration of one of the most fiendish acts of barbarity and cold blooded murder, that has ever been recorded in the annals of crime. About ten days ago, Mr. John F. Williams, who lived on the Merrimac river, some 28 miles above its mouth, started a small flat-bottom and with a hired hand, started down the river. His intention was to go to Arkansas on a trapping expedition, and he was at the close of the season to allow the man a certain share of the profits in addition to his wages.—The boat reached Evans's Landing, nearly opposite Grand Tower, and remained there a day or two. While at this point, Williams's comrade became dissatisfied with the situation, abandoned the boat and obtained employment as a wood-chopper for Mr. Evans.

Extensive Sale of Jewelry.—We call the attention of readers to the lengthy advertisement of Messrs. Root & Brown to be found in our columns to-day. This firm, in view of a partial change of business location from their present stand to Main street, offer a very large stock of jewelry at cost. Every variety of goods in their line is embraced in the stock.

Our meeting at the Court House last night was well attended, and well entertained. Mr. Tempert made an excellent speech in English and afterwards in German, his native language. He was cheered repeatedly and enthusiastically.

Our Editor D. N. Green made an able and eloquent speech. He has thoroughly canvassed the district, and done his whole duty, with ability and fidelity seldom equalled.

Speaking at the Court-House.

Remember DR. CROSS makes a speech at the Courthouse to-night.

An Atrrocious Murder.—We are furnished by Mr. Pignan, of the Gen. Pike, with the particulars attending the perpetration of one of the most fiendish acts of barbarity and cold blooded murder, that has ever been recorded in the annals of crime. About ten days ago, Mr. John F. Williams, who lived on the Merrimac river, some 28 miles above its mouth, started a small flat-bottom and with a hired hand, started down the river. His intention was to go to Arkansas on a trapping expedition, and he was at the close of the season to allow the man a certain share of the profits in addition to his wages.—The boat reached Evans's Landing, nearly opposite Grand Tower, and remained there a day or two. While at this point, Williams's comrade became dissatisfied with the situation, abandoned the boat and obtained employment as a wood-chopper for Mr. Evans.

Every variety of goods in their line is embraced in the stock.
